

GOETHE INSTITUT ZYPERN

Talk with Elsie Slonim

My always changing and adventurous life between the USA, Austria, Palestine/Israel and Cyprus from 1917 until today

Talk

12th June 2013 um 7 p.m.

Goethe-Institut Nicosia

Language: English

Admission: free

The Goethe-Institut Cyprus, the Austrian Embassy and the Friedrich-Ebert-Foundation invite to a Talk with book-launch with the longtime resident (since more than 70 years!) on Cyprus Mrs. Elsie Slonim about: „Remembering History - My always changing and adventurous life between the USA, Austria, Palestine/Israel and Cyprus from 1917 until today“ in the Goethe-Institut Cyprus hall (next to Ledra Palace Hotel in the UN-Bufferzone).

Moderation: Björn Luley, Director of the Goethe-Institut in Nikosia

At that occasion Mrs. Slonim's memoires, who were published in 2012 in German and in English („Rosen aus der Sperrzone – Verwurzelung verboten“ / „Lemons from Paradise“) will also be presented. Both editions will be on sale and can be signed by Mrs. Slonim.

All interested in the fascinating life of this unique and strong woman are cordially welcome! A small reception will follow.

